

Work Experience

---

🍃 Holland and Foley Architecture, Northport, Maine (1993-present)

Licensed architect in firm providing design services, with emphasis on environmentally friendly design and construction. Numerous residential and commercial projects with budgets from $15,000 to $1,100,000.

🍃 Sarah Jones Holland, Architect, Camden, Maine (1990-1993)

In private practice, providing architectural services with emphasis on environmentally responsible design, energy efficiency and renewable energy use.

🍃 Anthony DiGregorio Architects, Damariscotta, Maine (1989-1990)

Designer and draftsman working on historic renovations and single-family custom homes.

🍃 John Hansen, Architects, South Thomaston, Maine (1988-1989)

Designer and draftsman on single and multi-family residential projects, commercial and public buildings.

🍃 Sunset Street Associates, Cambridge, Massachusetts (1986-1988)

Designer and draftsman on variety of housing projects for special-needs occupancies, e.g., disabled adults, orphans, troubled teens and elderly. Worked on low-income housing and adaptive reuse projects.

🍃 Gerald Ives Architects, Boston, Massachusetts (1985-1986)

Designer and draftsman for single-family residences and the Massachusetts Audubon Society Visitors Center at Wellfleet.

🍃 John D. Morris II, Architects and Planners, Camden, Maine (1984-1985)

Designer and draftsman for single and multi-family housing projects and commercial buildings.

Related Experience

---

🍃 Amizade, Cochabamba, Bolivia: Volunteer construction work to improve facilities at an orphanage near Bolivia's second-largest city, October 2002.

🍃 Moss, Inc., Belfast, Maine: Consultant on design, detailing and computer-aided drafting for company manufacturing fabric exhibition structures, 1994-96.

🍃 Builders and Architects for Sustainable Environments (B.A.S.E.): Co-founded Maine-based organization of building professionals committed to environmentally-responsible design and construction.

🍃 Maine Solar Energy Association: Former president of statewide non-profit organization providing education, workshops and events to promote the use of solar and other renewable energy resources.

Education

---

🍃 Bachelor of Architecture, Boston Architectural Center, 1988.

🍃 Bachelor of Arts in Architecture, SUNY Buffalo, 1983.

🍃 Design and Art History Studies, University of North Carolina, 1979.